1) Are you interested in international comparative analyses?

2) Do you investigate how social behavior varies with cross-country cultural differences?

3) Do you recognize the extra identifying variation afforded by panel data covering many years of individuals' lives?

4) Would you like to save yourself the work of having to harmonize all data for your cross-country study?

If you answered yes to any of the above, attend the session on the Cross-National-Equivalent File (CNEF)! Get more information. Ask experts whether CNEF data might meet your project-specific needs.
